Us CLUB MEMBER'S CODE OF ETHICS

To show respect and mutual love for the wonders of nature and for my fellow man, in order that I may merit a reputation for responsibility in my use of the events facilities and cooperation in dealing with my fellow rally members.

To develop to the highest potential the relationships that have and will be formed, without giving thought to any racial, ethnic or social background of the participants of this organization, so that all may feel welcome to actively engage in the fellowship each outing produces.

Remembering to use these events as a personal growth experience, where I am free to express my views and in turn learn from others as they express their ideas, resolving never to impose my ideas upon my fellow members, but to be attentive to their concerns.

To actively participate in the preservation of this organization by donating my resources to the best of my ability, those resources including but not limited to my time, money and encouragement, while ever embracing the reality that our outings are geared to promote family, fun and general appreciation of life.

IF YOU OWN A QUALIFYING COACH AND AGREE TO ABIDE BY THE Us CLUB'S CODE OF ETHICS, YOU ARE ELIGIBLE TO BE A MEMBER.
